Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Stuck playing sheriff in Liberty Flats, Jake Cameron impatiently waits for headquarters to assign a permanent lawman so he can return to his life as a Texas Ranger. Then Sunny Fannin sashays into town, intent on claiming her late-mother s estate and bullying the townsfolk into some semblance of social culture. At least now, Jake has something interesting to watch. But, Sunny has no use for a lazy Texas Ranger who spends his days watching the folk from beneath his tipped-down hat. She s on the hunt for her scoundrel of a father, who left her mother to raise her alone. Then the town s orphaned ragamuffin, who s been Sunny s yammering shadow since her arrival, begins talking-up Jake s better side including the Ranger s ability to protect Sunny from danger. Can the wisdom of a child overcome the obstacles keeping two opposites from attracting? Only if Jake is willing to help Sunny by betraying a perilous secret. REVIEWS: . .a fun-to-read western romance filled with elements from the mystery genre that make it a very interesting reading experience. Harriet Klausner [the] small town folksiness and caring will surround you with warmth. Sunny and Jake are living proof that opposites attract. Frances L.
