If, on the other hand, a person has been loving, virtuous and God-fearing, while on earth, he will continue to possess these desirable characteristics. All knowledge gained on earth, will be retained by the spirit in the world of spirits. The prophet Joseph informs us that, In the world of spirits, no man can be exalted but by knowledge. There will naturally be every grade, or degree, of righteousness and wickedness, of intelligence and ignorance, in the vast world of spirits. From the words of the prophet Alma, we learn that they are divided into two general divisions and places, the righteous enjoying the blessings of Paradise, and the wicked reaping the result of their evil deeds, being bound by their sins and ignorance of the things of God, in outer darkness (alma 40: 7 In this outer darkness, the wicked will have to suffer the...
