ARDEN MASSITER (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Arden Massiter I look out from one of my windows - it opens to the door and has a wrought-iron balcony hanging to its edges like a bird's nest. Below, at a fearful distance, is a ravine, watered by tumbling rivulets, choked with ilex and chestnut, the tops of which are shivering and complaining - a sea of green waves, over it now and then the sunshine glancing merrily. Oh my right, high fantastic hills, in their outline strangely irregular, with here and there a screen of stone-pines, desolate beyond imagination. It is a sullen sky that lies couchant on the heights. By going to the angle of the balcony and twisting my neck round, I catch glimpses of the open country - olive-groves, corn-fields in stubble, cane-brakes, and a white village or two on the distant hillsides. There are lovely hanging mists of rain, shot through in places by the floating and uncertain sun, but even where they touch the white houses I feel that the lines are distinct, not magically shaded as in our Northern landscapes. The mystery which takes us children of the cloud hides within this painted cavern of a fortress, or down among the tall trees in the ravine. Elsewhere, the shapes of things are palpable and their measure is their beauty. Think of F rancia or Fra Bartolommeo, not of Turner, when you picture these Volscian Hills, even with a storm rising over them.
