Suicide Dictionary: The History of Rainbow Abbey

By Paul Lonely

John Hunt Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Suicide Dictionary: The History of Rainbow Abbey, Paul Lonely, In 1453 ce an island was discovered in the North Atlantic called Ambrojio, and was donated to the Catholic Church. Pope Nicholas V (the first humanist Pope) used the land to erect a secret monastery for an artist colony of monk-poets he employed to formulate what he called a "prophetic" or "inspired" document, that was to be published in the year 2050. This artist colony (now called the Order of Quantum Catholics) has survived to the present day and still employs monk-poets who remain hard at work on this document, now titled "Quantum Psalter". Here is the first volume describing their heroic work. Maybe you have read the Upanishads, a few Buddhist sutras, or maybe even Rumi or Blake. But those relate the experience of yesterday. "Suicide Dictionary" is the poetic expression of spirituality in our time. No New Age pre-rational regression here. We now live in an age where to be Integral is to be on the leading edge of human consciousness. "Suicide Dictionary" is the product of applying these higher levels of consciousness to the art of creative writing. It...

Reviews

It is an awesome publication which i actually have ever read through. it had been writtern really properly and valuable. I found out this book from my i and dad recommended this pdf to discover.

-- Doyle Schmeler

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
