Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; Description: Hello! Have you ever wanted to read a children's picture book to your child which was not only great fun and interesting for them, but also really entertaining and thought provoking for you?! Well, look no further .my children's picture book 'The Dandelion Who Refused to be a Weed' has been trialled on lots of families and all the parents say "there's so much more to this book than in other children's picture books, and the kids just love Dolores, the big bright bold dandelion.they just want to keep reading it!" The story is about a dandelion called Dolores, who can't understand why she is called a weed when she is just as beautiful as the other flowers. One day, however, when a storm blows in, it's Dolores who keeps her head while the other flowers lose theirs! The book is beautifully illustrated with bright colours and designed to make any child or adult want to pick it up and read more. It is written from life experiences which gives it a charming authenticity and with a great humorous play on words - it's a must-have read for any child!. book.
