

Three Dimensional Creativity

By Lee, Kwang-Hyung

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Springer Netherlands | Three Navigations to Extend our Thoughts | This book examines a systematic method for developing creativity. It deals with the theoretical and practical aspects of time, space and field to explore how creativity is something that an individual can hone with effort. | Is creativity something that we are simply born with and cannot hone with effort? Some say that creativity cannot be cultivated. Is it true? In general our thinking sticks to reality unless there is any external stimulation. With our thinking fixed on a certain situation, it becomes difficult to come up with a fresh idea. In this regard, three questions are suggested: (1) Question of Time: When a problem arises, question yourself on a time axis first of all. How would the matter be handled 10 or 20 years from now? (2) Question of Space: Ask yourself some questions on its spatial elements. How would the matter be handled in Saudi Arabia or in China? (3) Question of Field: Apply the given problem in a variety of fields. How would the matter be handled in the field of music or electronic engineering? The three questions suggested here are given on the three...
