Excerpt: . . . 12 Dakota, contributing to an 84 million industry. In comparison, Corps mandated water releases to support downstream navigation will cost my State more money this year than the entire economic benefits of the negligible barge industry. The Corps failure to follow the law and revise the master manual has real consequences for South Dakotans. While the Corps hap-hazardly fluctuated the water levels of the South Dakota res-ervoirs, marina operators such as Ken Dooley of Platte, South Da-kota, have suffered. The Corps decision to lower Lake Francis Case by 3 feet this past spring left Ken and other marina operators scrambling to keep the ramps operational and businesses open. In response the State of South Dakota filed a lawsuit against the Corps to halt releases from Lake Oahe, that lawsuit led by our Re-publican Governor, Governor Janklow. Although litigation is not a long-term solution to the problem, it is the only position left open after a decade of delay and indecision. Failure to revise the master manual in time for the 2003 operating...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
