

Shadow Commander: The Epic Story of Donald D. Blackburn - Guerrilla Leader and Special Forces Hero (Hardback)

By Mike Guardia

Casemate Books, United States, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Praise for Mike Guardia: .meticulously researched, with facts verified by exhaustive sleuthing, a fine work of investigative history. -Military Writers Society of America The fires on Bataan burned on the evening of April 9, 1942, illuminating the white flags of surrender against the night time sky. Woefully outnumbered, outgunned, and ill-equipped, battered remnants of the American-Philippine army surrendered to the forces of the Rising Sun. Yet amongst the chaos and devastation of the American defeat, Army Captain Donald D. Blackburn refused to lay down his arms. With future Special Forces legend Russell Volckmann, Blackburn escaped from Bataan and fled to the mountainous jungles of North Luzon, where they raised a private army of over 22,000 men against the Japanese. Once there, Blackburn organised a guerrilla regiment from among the native tribes in the Cagayan Valley. Blackburn's Headhunters, as they came to be known, devastated the Japanese 14th Army within the western provinces of North Luzon and destroyed the Japanese naval base at Aparri, the largest enemy anchorage in the Philippines. After the war, Blackburn remained on active duty and played a key role in initiating Special...
