An Unexpected Exile (Paperback)

By Sheryl Sorrentino

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Risa Weinberg is a fairly attractive and mostly independent junior merchandiser for Nordstrom s flagship San Francisco store. Nearly thirty, she dreams of someday being promoted to fashion buyer. But with no other romantic prospects on the horizon, Risa becomes unexpectedly smitten with Arturo, a recent Nicaraguan immigrant whom she meets on the bus one morning. In spite of a riotous culture-clash, Arturo s captivating life story and arresting sensuality soon overwhelm Risa as Arturo, a self-described Sandinista insurgent, cunningly muscles his way into Risa s good graces. With a conscious but faulty deliberation, Risa manages to ignore the signs of Arturo s possessive and abusive nature; she succumbs to the allure of romance and falls deeper and deeper under his spell in her misguided pursuit of passion. Meanwhile, her passive-aggressive rapport with her widowed father grows increasingly strained, and her career aspirations derail, as she stumbles into what quickly becomes a highly charged and subtly abusive relationship. When faced with the prospect of Arturo s deportation, Risa reluctantly agrees to marry him against her better judgment. She then becomes so caught up...
