Troubador Publishing, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Munich, 1938: An American foreign correspondent gatecrashes the pre-war Munich Conference to protest against British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain s surrender to Hitler - more than 70 years later it s like the incident never happened - hushed up with the man disappeared, never to be seen again. Now his granddaughter demands to know the truth of what really happened. Britain, 2015: Emma Drake, a history researcher at Cambridge, has always been puzzled that her grandfather s disappearance appears to be a closed book. The infamous Munich agreement was signed; Chamberlain returned home to be a short-lived hero for winning peace in our time ; Hitler emerged unscathed to wage his war; and her grandfather vanished from the pages of history. Feisty, thirsting for thrills and ambitious for success, Emma is chosen to reopen the missing grandfather mystery. She battles a series of enemies before the trail takes her in a wholly unexpected direction to a forest 50 miles west of Auschwitz to trace partisan action against Hitler s Final solution. Inspired by the work of Robert Harris, Robert Goddard and Philip Kerr, Munich is a heart-stopping thriller that explores the minds of those involved in the infamous Munich Agreement. The book will appeal to fans of historical fiction and thrillers.
