Savor the love, the drama, humor, friendships, and family of Julian Fellowes multi-award-winning series, Downton Abbey, with this script book that contains the full scripts of Season Three including previously unseen dialogue, sixteen pages of color photographs, and other material from the show. Downton Abbey is a global phenomenon and the most successful television drama in history. Created by Oscar-winning writer Julian Fellowes, seasons one, two, and three have delighted viewers and reviewers alike with stellar performances, ravishing sets, and glamorous period costumes, and a gripping plot. The third season of Downton Abbey opens in 1920 and takes us through the autumn of 1921. The end of the First World War has ushered in enormous change for the world, including the Crawley family and their servants. As modernity disrupts ancient tradition, all must struggle to accommodate a new way of life. With change comes joy and tragedy; the Crawleys will be touched by both as they face an uncertain future. With Downton Abbey, Julian Fellowes magnificently entertains audiences with cleverly woven storylines of love, loss, and transformation and also delivers insightful social commentary on British life. With The Series 3 scripts, fans can immerse themselves in the show to discover important details, and examine character development, pacing, and themes in depth. With an introduction and commentary from Julian Fellowes, Downton Abbey Script Book Season Three offers invaluable insight into how he researched and crafted the world of his extraordinary show.
