The FBI and Italian Mafia make strange bedfellows when a vicious Russian Organized crime figure, operating at the behest of Russian Intelligence, lands in The Big Apple. The Russian intelligence hench-man, infamously known as Mashkov, avenges the death of slain a Russian sleeper agent and accidentally hits the son of an Italian crime boss, sending J. J. and Task Force Phantom Hunter to the streets of New York. They are stepping into a possible war between Russian and Italian organized crime factions, while trying to dismantle the financial hub of the most insidious Russian illegals network in U. S. History. Meanwhile, CIA Case Officer Grayson Six Chance is in Moscow trying to capture a fugitive American who has stolen White House intelligence and is planning to pass it to the Russians putting Six in a moral dilemma he may not be prepared to handle. And when J. J. finally learns the truth surrounding her mothers death in the line of duty, her life may never be the same. If you enjoy this book, you will...
