He replyd, he would bring me Good News before twice Twenty four Hours went over my head; with which I was very well satisfied. I then enquird into the Disposition of the Chamber, the Strong-Box, the Bags in it, what Marks were upon them, and every Particular both within side and without. The Strong-Box and the Cupboard, which I took a very exact Memorandum of, for the Uses I might have occasion to make of it, , promising to give him further Instructions in due time, and when I saw how our Affair went oh. We said no more of it then, but two Days afterwards At;uilera, as he said he would do, brought me the Impression of the two Keys, and told me what Locksmith I should go to have, false ones made by it. I answerd, twas time to set about the Work, and askd him what time his Master was generally in his Shop, for most of the Bankers in Italy keep Shops; he replyd, from Ten to Twelve, and that every body who came to speak with him, were sure to find him at that time: Tis enough, said he, do you be sure to find out some Excuse to be there at that time, and hearken what I say to your Master, that you may be able to witness to it, if you are required, I desire no more of you. Things being thus...
