Donald Hairston and his boyhood friends are caught in an extensive police initiative targeting the most crime-ridden neighborhoods in DC. The heavy police saturation dratically reduced the flow of drugs in the area, and along with it, the flow of cash to Donald s crew. Looking for an alternate source of income, the young men rob a Hispanic restaurant outside of their neighborhood, killing two of its patrons in the process. One of the victims happens to be the brother of a racist Latino coucilwoman who is not afraid to speak her mind. But she s tired of talking.
