We had spent the night of June 30th, as you will all remember, at the little hamlet of State Line, just across the Maryland border. We knew we were nearing the enemy, and that a battle was certainly approaching; but we little realized the terrible ordeal which the 1st of July, 1863, had in store for us. We spent the night peacefully, and started on our march northward leisurely enough on that Wednesday morning. It was not until after we had fairly started that the sound of the cannon broke upon our ears, and rumors of the commencing conflict began to meet us on our way. Then the cannon grew louder and news came thick and fast. We heard of the first success and the capture of Archer's Brigade,...
