Excerpt: . . . 11 public servants, those who are struggling with continued depend-ence on welfare, including the children and the young people, as well as those older Americans who deserve a strong improved Medicare system. First, I will discuss the Presidents bold proposals for the contin-ued reform of the welfare system. As you know, welfare reform has always been one of my greatest concerns. In Wisconsin, we devoted substantial resources to helping individuals get the training, health insurance, child care and other services they needed to go from welfare to work. Welfare reform has worked beyond expectations, resulting in millions moving from the shackles of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) to the independence of work. Nearly 7 million fewer individuals now are on welfare today than in 1996, and 2. 8 million fewer children are in poverty because of welfare reform. In New York...
