Now there was my cousin Eliza, Miss Sally Ruth Dexter once said to me, who was forced to make her home for thirty years in Vienna! She married an attach of the Austrian legation, you know; met him while she was visiting in Washington, and she was such a pretty girl and he was such a charming man that they fell in love with each other and got married. Afterward his family procured him a very influential post at court, and of course poor Cousin Eliza had to stay there with him. Dear mama often said she considered it a most touching proof of womans willingness to sacrifice herself for theres no doubt it must have been very hard on poor Cousin Eliza. She was born and raised right here in Appleboro, you see. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
