Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: . . . all the galleries, with brief descriptions of their contents and directions how to reach them from either the Huntington Avenue Entrance Hall or the Rotunda at the head of the main stairway. The stencilled Inserts issued with the Guide to bring its information up to the date of sale are also twice their former size, to permit of giving plans of the ground floor as well as the main floor. The plans contain the names of the galleries and offices as listed in the printed pages. The Inserts aim to record all important changes of exhibition since the Guide was printed and to give other current information as space permits. The purpose of the Guide is to make available to the visitor at a nominal cost a complete outline of all that the Museum offers from day to day. It is planned to meet the needs...
