You become the slave of a secret til you re the only one who knows it. This couldn t be any truer for Marcuse. Imagine having life as you know it torn away from you over one secret. In this thriller, Secret follows the tale of an ex-CIA agent, who learns a secret that quickly enslaves him. He s told to kill anyone who s learned of it, and if he doesn t, his daughter s life will be taken. Life becomes like a game of chess - survival of the smartest. As the story unfolds quickly before his eyes, he learns that no one is who they say they are, not even himself. After finding out about a brain transplant he had after a freak accident, Marcuse struggles with his own identity and the fact that he s been living a complete lie for the past three years. His wife isn t his wife, his daughter isn t his daughter and his mind isn t his own - will he take down the secret that has set him on a mass killing spree and figure out who he truly is? Find out in this thrilling tale about betrayal and espionage.
