MATHS FOR RECEPTION - AGES 4 AND OVER (PAPERBACK)

Blurb, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Maths for Reception is an exercise book that brings the four basic mathematics operations; addition, subtraction, multiplication and division down to reception class level for kids of 4 and 5 years of age easily, teaching them the fundamental properties of these operations. Teaching basic mathematics operations to reception class should be easier and this should be enjoyable for kids, while also helping them learn what is actually happening behind these operations. This book makes it easier for parents to teach basic maths to their child. It also makes it enjoyable for your child to do maths more often, laying a favorable ground for her/him to want to excel in math. Mathematics needs mastering principles and their applications under diverse problems. Therefore, continue to teach your child by giving additional exercise sets following the principles included in this book.
