

Cloud Culture: Walking the Walk Typing the Talk: Christian Living in the Social Media World

By Chuck Giacinto

Seven Leaf Press LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 75 pages. A Revolution is at Hand Sometimes the most ingenious ideas are birthed out of a happy accident, and in the case of co-writers Chuck Giacinto and Bryce Conlan, penning a book about the spiritual ramifications of socially networking certainly fell under that umbrella. The two long time acquaintances may have lived seemingly divergent lives before tag teaming on this collaboration (with the Illinois-based Giacinto serving as a worship pastor, music producer, husband and father of three and the Connecticut-bred Chicago-transplanted Conlan working with his video production company Big Swell Media, servicing a slew of celebrities, authors and politicians along the way), but their paths always crossed at an annual worship conference in the Windy City. With Giacinto serving on the worship team and Conlan managing conference media, the pair constantly immersed themselves in spiritually-centered conversations spanning virtually every aspect of the arts and pop culture at large. Yet one of the most frequent talking points the pair frequently descended upon was the idea of social networking, particularly how Christians should respond to the booming trend and its possibilities. In fact, Conlan challenged Giacinto with you should write a book, to which he...
