Excerpt: . . . drawn at the new plant. are of beautifully clear, colorless glass, the striking feature of which is its brilliant polish. This polish, in the case of several of the patterns which closely resemble mitre cuttings, tends to increase the effect, and will doubtless impress the trade when the line is presented for its approval. Zanesville Stoneware Co. William M. Narrin, who represents the Zanesville Stoneware Co. , at 23 West 23d Street, is showing for that concern a large assortment of shapes and sizes in jardinieres, pedestals, umbrella stands, fern dishes, etc. , in matt green pottery. The ware is nicely glazed and is a pleasing shade of green. while the shapes are likewise attractive. Central Glass Works The Central Glass orks, of-Vheeling, W. Va. , have already brought out some of their new designs for next year, among which is a new stemware...
