Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Alabama Girls Technical Institute Bulletin, 1916, Vol. 10: Proceedings of the Second Annual Conference Alabama Home Economics Association The second annual conference of the Alabama Home Economics Association was held at the Alabama Girls Technical Institute, Montevallo, January 27-29, 1916. The meetings were well attended and the program as planned was carried out with only a few changes. The general meetings were inspiring and helpful and the round table discussions gave an insight into the work of the past year and made evident the greatest needs in the home economics work at present. Mrs. Woolman, a pioneer in the home economics work, won her audience by her charming personality and her interesting survey of home economics in the United States. She showed that it is meeting the needs of various types of girls, those who, early in life, must lend a hand in supporting the family as well as those who take the work solely to prepare them for home making. Professor Judd showed in an interesting way that the changed conditions in the social and economic world make necessary the new or socialized curriculum in our schools, and pictured the schools when such a curriculum shall have been fully worked out. Miss Frayser told of her work for women and girls, especially in the rural districts. She emphasized the importance of building on what was already in the community in the way of organization and interests and emphasized the need of home economics in making better homes and better citizens. Miss Rowan pictured in her enthusiastic way what home economics can do for boys, and told of the different lines of extension work which...
