The first book, Latanya: A Story of Gangs, Girls and Guns became a best seller reaching #10. That reality is over and is about to slap her hard. Latanya, a newly released ex-convict, hustler, former gang banger is trying to go straight, but has too many convictions, too many bills and too little education and money. Latanya faces an uphill battle to turn her life around, and not get burned out watching too many young men and women make fatal mistakes. For Latanya, temptation to return to the old easy life of fast money is everywhere. Can she resist temptation, be a role model for her daughter and the girls and perhaps help them make different choices so they don't lose their freedom or their lives? Released from rehab and newly recovered from near-fatal gunshot wounds, Latanya returns home to find herself evicted. Her criminal record (CORI) makes it impossible to find a job or a place to stay, and she's forced to take refuge in a homeless shelter. The pastor from a local church sees Latanya is trying to do the right thing and asks one of his members to take Latanya in, so she doesn't have to stay in the shelter. However, the old woman hates women like Latanya and is very mean to her and treats her like a child. Latanya goes to speak to the principal...
