

The Haymaker (Paperback)

By Linda Mather

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My earliest recollection of being somewhat different from other people was when I was five years old. I was never interested in playing the silly games that other children played at nursery school. I had always felt old beyond my years. One teacher once called me a little professor and although I think that this was meant to be a criticism, for me it was a compliment. I became appreciably aware of the gift that I had at around the age of six or seven when I found a small frightened bird in my garden. It had a broken wing. It lay on the ground looking defeated as if ready to die. I made the bird a nest in an old shoe box and gently lay it inside. I nurtured it back to health. Well that is what everyone else thought. The truth is that the bird s wing healed the minute that I put my hand on it. I watched in awe as the bird s skin sculpted together again and the feathers spread over the newly formed skin....
