The Back Story Back in 2014 I was feeling frustrated with my diary. I actually have an online to do list but nothing quite beats getting today's most important tasks down with good, old fashioned, pen and paper. I was using an A5 page-per-day diary and it really wasn't hugely inspiring. So, as a graphic designer by trade, I decided to design my own. It would be a combination of notebook, to do list, diary and business planner. And so the Ultimate Diary Planner was born (you can find out more about that at www.ultimatediaryplanner.com). 2 years on, I still luuuurve my planner and use it every day,...
