Climbing the Sacred Ladder: Your Path to Love, Joy, Peace and Purpose is your spiritual path to higher consciousness and to building the necessary spiritual muscle for dealing with lifes unending challenges. You will learn skills and acquire life management tools and techniques for living a more satisfying life by more effectively coping with impact of external circumstances. Regardless of personal loss of health, relationship, loved one or job and despite political chaos and economic constrictions you will be able to draw on soul strength to maintain your equilibrium and retain your equanimity By focusing your attention on your inner riches, you can stay centered in yourself, and gain a new perspective that adds meaning and purpose to your life. Strategically designed narrative, anecdotes, exercises, contemplations and meditations guide you step by step along your journey towards alignment with Source. This book is based on the Kabbalistic idea, which holds, we live simultaneously in four different realities, while being aware of only one. In this world view, what is most important is concealed beneath the surface of apparent reality. Nothing is, as it seems to be. Rather, there is always something beyond what meets the eye. This applies to such various areas as visual and auditory perception, inter-personal relationships, religious-text study, dreams, and even material reality. The aim of Kabbalah is to infuse each person with a higher consciousness, a less strident ego, and a stronger soul, so each person can consciously choose those deeds, feelings, and thoughts, which accelerate spiritual redemption. The Sacred Ladder, based on the biblical story of Jacobs dream, symbolizes the principle of spiritual ascension from earth to heaven, in order to attain higher consciousness....
