Hachette Australia, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. 1. From the author of the best-selling and beloved THE END OF YOUR LIFE BOOK CLUB - a wonderfully engaging new book: both a celebration of reading in general and an impassioned recommendation of specific books that can help guide us through our daily lives.'I'm on a search and have been all my life: to find books to help me make sense of the world, to help me become a better person, to help me get my head around the big questions that I have, and figure out the answers to some of the small ones while I'm at it' Will Schwalbe'I've always believed that everything you need to know you can find in a book', writes Will Schwalbe in his introduction to this thought-provoking, heart-felt, and often inspiring new book about books. In each chapter he makes clear the ways in which a particular book has helped to shape how he leads his own life and the ways in which it might help to shape ours. He talks about what brought him to each book - or vice versa; the people in his life he associates each book with; how each has led him to other books; how each is part of his understanding of himself in the world.And he relates each book to a question of our daily lives, for example: Melville's BARTELBY, THE SCRIVENER speaks to quitting; 1984 to disconnecting from our electronics; James Baldwin's GIOVANNI'S ROOM to the power of connecting with people face to face; Anne Morrow Lindbergh's GIFT FROM THE SEA to taking time to recharge; Anne Lamott's BIRD BY BIRD to being sensitive to the surrounding world; THE LITTLE PRINCE to finding friends; Elie Wiesel's NIGHT to choosing to do something in the face of injustice; Paula...
