

Look What I Found (Paperback)

By Martin Book

Rr Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Redemption. After futilely seeking a sense of meaning for decades, Martin had almost given up hope of finding any sense of belonging. He was illegitimate. He was without family roots. From as long as he could remember, Martin would go to the backyard on his birthday and look to the sky, imagining his mother s voice telling him how special he was, how she loved him, and with her arms around him wishing him a happy birthday. This was a ritual Martin observed every birthday, regardless of the weather. Getting older for Martin wasn t a simple matter of biological aging. Martin had no sense of who he was. His ancestry was unknown. Why had he been dumped on HER doorstep? What was wrong with him? Each successive birthday brought it all home: I am illegitimate.a bastard.no standing in society.unworthy.hated by God and respectable people.useless. Was life worth living without an identity? If he should overcome that hurdle and be lucky enough to discover his elusive family ties, would he be strong enough to take whatever turned up? Would his family accept...
