A NEW WAY OF LOVING is a riveting metaphysical novel about men and women in relationships. It takes place in a small village on the west coast of Ireland where Frank and Lucy O Connor spontaneously learn how to bond more deeply with one another and in doing so, heighten their sense of well-being. Frank and Lucy s discovery comes about quite accidentally as a result of their deep love for each other. They had come together years before not just as a man and a woman. They had come together as allies in the healing process. The story begins with them having set themselves free from their early life wounds and they go a step beyond that healing too. Through their process they become innocent again, but not naive, just innocent. Wisdom and maturity accompany their recovery of innocence. They become a source of inspiration to many of their friends and neighbors, and the unraveling process begins to happen for a few others too. It s a perilous journey for many to make but it s one very few of the villagers can resist taking, for they have grown weary of living safe, comfortable lives and they see how happy Frank and Lucy are. Understanding that the same possibility exists for them too, they re inspired to become free of the past at any cost now. They want more than anything, to find real fulfillment in their lives. Frank and Lucy quickly realize they have discovered a secret treasure, lost long ago in the deep waters...
