Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annotated Edition of the Platform of the National Progressive Party of the State of New York: Adopted by the State Convention, Syracuse, Sept; 5, 1912 Immediately after the Chicago Convention, State Chairman Hotchkiss asked several persons with intimate knowledge of the political, economic and social needs of the State, each independently, to prepare a rough draft of a platform for the consideration of a Provisional Platform Committee. Each of these persons worked several weeks and corresponded with numbers of people who knew local conditions and the desires and hopes of the people for reform. The Provisional Committee was organized ten days before the date set for the Syracuse Convention and held a number of meetings in Yew York City in which the several proposed drafts of the platform were subjected to rigid criticism and discussion. The full Provisional Committee, was called together at Syracuse two days before the convention met and was in session almost continuously for forty-eight hours at Syracuse, part of which time was devoted to public hearings widely advertised in...
