Head-Quarters, Albany, Sept. 5, 1856. Veterans of the War of 1812, in the State of New York: The Legislature of this state having adjourned at its last session without passing the bill adjusting your military claims, unanimously reported by a committee of the senate, the undersigned, your General-in-Chief, deems it expedient, and hereby advises and directs, that you assemble in convention, in person or by delegates, at Schuylerville, in the county of Saratoga, New York, on the seventeenth day of October next, to adopt the necessary measures to procure the payment of your claims, and to commemorate, by a military parade, a glorious triumph of our Revolutionary Fathers - the capture at that place of Burgoyne s army of invasion, on the seventeenth of October, 1777. The stupendous consequences of this event, a brief statement will disclose. The British force consisted of 10, 000 men, which, in its organization and equipments, had no superior in any service. Co-operating with St. Leger, invading the western frontier, and with Sir Henry Clinton in the Highlands, its mission was to cut off the eastern colonies from the middle and southern, and to crush New York. She was assailed with fire and the sword, the tomahawk and scalping-knife, and Delenda est Carthago was stamped on every movement of her imperious foe. When the storm first burst upon her northern frontier, New York could oppose but 1000 men to its overwhelming force. Her subjugation appeared to be inevitable. It...
