The answer is NO, which should be no surprise. We have to make time. The truth is most of us know the importance of being still but lack either the knowledge or the discipline to put it into practice. When we stop to reflect on the truth that the God of this universe desires to meet with us so that we can be transformed by His indwelling presence and the power of His word. Yet many of us get caught up in our hectic way of life and do not make time to slow down. We miss out because we are not in tune with the presence of the Holy Spirit who desires to counsel, teach, convict, reveal, and comfort us. Through practice, we can learn the discipline of being present with God. In Philippians 2:13 we read, God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases him. Be Still will provide 6-weeks of practical teaching and an immediate opportunity to practice the disciplines of solitude and silence. We ll study topics like: - Roadblocks to Being Still with God - God is as Close as Your Breath - How To Know You re Hearing God - S.T.O.P. and Be Still - A practical tool to help you refocus on God - Biblical Lamenting - Meeting with Jesus in the Perfect Place So join me on this journey we call life and lets encourage and challenge each other to put God at the center of our lives and Be Still in His presence.
