

Domestic Violence and Children: A Handbook for Schools and Early Years Settings (Paperback)

By Abigail Sterne, Liz Poole

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. What can schools and social care workers do to help children affected by domestic violence? Large numbers of children are affected by domestic violence. The problem crosses every social class and culture. It causes distress and anxiety in children and adversely affects their learning and play, as well as their behaviour, wellbeing and attendance. Education staff may know of a child or family in crisis, want to help, yet feel outside their comfort zone, grappling with a complex issue not covered in their training. This book describes the impact of domestic violence on children and provides support for education and social care professionals. It takes heavy workloads into account and suggests practical ways of meeting the needs of pupils who come from difficult home backgrounds. The authors provide guidance and advice on: * identifying and responding to signs of distress * helping pupils to talk about and make sense of their experiences * the impact on parenting and how parents can be supported * the needs of young people in refuges and temporary accommodation * pupil safety and government safeguarding guidelines * educating young people...
