This is the testimony of one man's journey from New Age believer to committed disciple of Jesus Christ. This book will encourage and inspire the reader that God's not dead, His sweet providence being a source of much assurance, peace, and joy throughout the account. The author became a follower of Christ in mid-life while a probation officer for San Diego county. He subsequently served in vocational ministry with Calvary International Fellowship in Poway, California and the Christian and Missionary Alliance church in White Sulphur Springs, Montana where he lives with his wife Tana.
