The bonds of love are steadily growing stronger, and the church is built up in the knowledge of the truth, and in godliness. The means of grace are well attended. The figures stating the number received on confession do not fully express the true result of the influence of the gospel. The Young People s Society shows a desire to attend the prayer meeting. It is not so gratifying to her to be compelled to report so many dismissions, which was chiefly caused by organization of the Ninth Church. But in this, also, they can acquiesce if it may only prove to be instrumental for the furtherance of the kingdom of Christ. Third Grand Rapids reports thankfulness for great spiritual and temporal blessings. Peace and harmony have prevailed. Public services have been well attended. Evidences of the Spirit s work are seen in conversions and increased activity. The Sunday-school has outgrown its present quarters. The debt of the church was wiped out last summer by voluntary contributions. Fourth Grand Rapids reports gratitude to God for so soon giving them another pastor. There is an increase in membership and in attendance. All societies, the Sunday-school and the catechetical classes are doing well. They regret that Christian charity has not increased in proportion. Fifth Grand Rapids reports abundant means of gratitude. The means...
