Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Naive but keen, Dave, Anne and five friends volunteer to become first-time sponsors, and are matched with an elderly couple from Kosovo. Little do they know they are about to embark on an adventure unlike anything ever experienced before. This true story will make you laugh out loud, bring tears to your eyes, and leave you wanting to meet this amazing Kosovar couple. The instant Nezir Brajshori--the tall, confident, outgoing man better known as Hajji --and his wife Nazife--a quiet, retiring, gentle woman--set foot on Canadian soil and meet their sponsors, the fun and challenges begin. Adjusting to each other and to unexpected cultural differences, the sponsors and newcomers share hilarious moments, overcome language barriers and tackle the practical difficulties of daily life in a new country. The sponsors introduce the Brajshoris to Canada s modern, urban environment, while Hajji entertains with anecdotes of traditional rural life. Together they celebrate the arrival of the Brajshoris son, Dani, rejoice in the excitement of trips to Germany, Mecca, and Kosovo, and partake in the joy of a visit with the Prime Minister of Canada. The volunteers learn about the Muslim religion and the art of living the moment, while Hajji and Nazife internalize the Canadian way of life. As years go by, a bond is created. The relationship blossoms, as sponsors pass from role of helper to friend, becoming as close as family itself. In becoming Canadian citizens, the Brajshoris achieve their dreams of democracy, peace and freedom.
