Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Demons are feasting on your father. Johnny stood at the threshold looking into the dim beer bar at a hooded man. His father was in the county hospital fighting an aggressive cancer. And now this menacing character proclaims a dire message. What, was he living in the Lord of the Rings? Johnny soon finds that in order to save his father, he must face creatures and beings from mythic realms he thought only existed in stories. But even more challenging, he must find a way to persuade his father to stay and fight when the man he s looked up to all his life has determined it s time to die. The Annunciation of Jack is a story cycle that presents the interlinked tales of ordinary people in an ordinary Northern California town during the early 1970s. Gerald Blanden, broker for Alhambra Realty, owns a comfortable three bedroom, two bath home atop a hill overlooking the town, with his wife and two children. Violet Philpott is a wide, elderly widow and treasurer for the Nazarene Church, with a garden in the backyard, and irises lining the front picket fence. The Williams family is headed by Jack and Cheryl, owners of the Gondolier Pizza Parlor, and parents of a teenage boy, Johnny, and seven-year old twins. And Carrie Hill, a teenage girl from a divorced family, is Johnny Williams s childhood, and best, friend. The people of Windford live with the tragedies and triumphs we all experience--the destruction of a house through natural disaster, the loss of a spouse to illness, the mental illness of a mother, the flowering of love between young people, the struggle with work, faith, family....
