P & R Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. In down-to-earth language Richard L. Pratt, Jr. has given us this helpful study manual on apologetics, the task of defending the faith. Far from a theoretical exposition, this training manual teaches how to answer nonbelievers and to take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ. Pratt shows how the biblical doctrines about humanity and our relationship to our Creator determine how we should do apologetics. Within this theological framework he examines the premises, attitudes, and specific steps involved in a genuinely biblical defense of Christianity. Illustrations and review questions help to make this a valuable tool for individual or group study. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
