It is great and fantastic. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. Your life period will likely be transformed once you comprehensively read this book.

A BRIDE ELECT (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A Bride Elect Dear Godmamma Dorcas, - You promised Dad when I was a child, - before I could run alone, I believe - that you would come to my wedding, and we are going now to claim fulfilment, so you must pack up your boxes forthwith. I am to be married in a fortnight, very quietly, in the church at home. It has all been fixed in a great hurry; Dick wanted to wait till the spring, but I said no, I was not going to stand another winter in Ditchborough if I could help it. I told him he could take me or leave me, so he is going to take me, - of course. It is to be as quiet as possible, - indeed nobody has been told in the neighbourhood; but the village people are so inquisitive and the servants will talk, so I am afraid it is not as secret as I should wish. Not a soul is to be asked but Dick's father and mother, and one of his married sisters and yourself. Janie will be my only bridesmaid; and there will be nobody to pair with her, as Dick is not having a best man. It is all nonsense about best men; they are no good for anything. Mother says I must have a white dress and a veil, and she is getting her way; but for my own part I would like better to wear a garden hat and an ulster, and go off from the church-door. Dick would not care. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book...
