

The Rainbow Warrior

By Charis Mundy

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 252 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 5.6in. x 0.7in. THE RAINBOW WARRIOR has been successfully published in Spain. The book narrates a dream and like dreams, it is woven with threads of two worlds: the real and imaginary one. It is a choral and visual composition. A caricature and a kaleidoscope of human emotions, painted with light and thick strokes of a brush, in a simple language. The teachings of several great masters enlighten us throughout. The alter ego of planet Earth, Plutonio, came into being through an act of faith and will. Life in Plutonio was idyllic, and the nations of the planet lived in peace and harmony. The Rainbow Warrior, spiritual and temporal leader of the Kuyichis and an immortal being, was the spiritual heart of the planet. Fairystan, Queendom of the Fairies who provided through their magic anything material a nation needed, was a highly developed country. All was well in Plutonio until two babies from planet Earth, a boy and a girl, Daimon and Burba, materialised through the black holes of the universe, bringing with them, unbeknown to all, the seed of fear and greed, which rapidly sprouted throughout. The chain of events that...
