Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from St. Andrew s College Review, Easter 1922 The performance of our first team which went even farther than winning its group, and the success obtained by all the lesser teams has been very gratifying. And now that one more hockey season is a matter of memory, we can sum up its material results and regard them with a modest measure of satisfaction. The spirit displayed by the school itself has been commendable. That teams have been able to play in the manner ours have is un doubtedly a true re?ection of the morale and Spirit which has been prevalent throughout the whole school during this past term. After the match with the St. Mary s team, a half-holiday was granted by the Headmaster, not in recognition of the score, but as an acknow ledgment of the good sportsmanship displayed both by the mem bers of the team and their supporters. To those inclined to believe that sports occupy too large a space in this issue, we would reply, that being a boy s paper, written by boys, we are naturally inclined to dwell at length on a subject peculiarly interesting to us. On the other hand, we would add, that one must not forget the classwork which has daily had first claim on our time and efforts. The result of our preparation for the more serious tasks of life will occupy a large portion of the Christ mas issue, when the outcome of the matriculation examinations will have been ascertained.
