He was right on the cusp of burning out when his superiors had nudged him towards retirement and he d taken the honourable discharge for what it was. As fresh a start as he d ever get, damaged as he was. Carly Jackson had come out of law school idealistic and desperate to make a difference in the world. She wanted nothing more than to work in a little non-profit, helping the underdog take down the big guns. Five years on saw her working as a prosecutor for a criminal law firm, jaded and with a lot less faith in the world. When a trio of ex-military end up at the centre of a gang-related case, Grant is called in to testify as an expert witness.
