Ario six-four-nine-one is an obsolete synth gigolo-especially when his latest trick proves to be his last in a brutal and horrifying way. Except for Elias, homeless and lonely because he s not what his father-or the world-wants him to be, haunted by a tragedy for which he cannot forgive himself. When he finds a battered, broken, long-discontinued synth in a dumpster, he decides to repair the poor thing despite all the reasons he shouldn t. Then all those reasons come crashing down, and in order to save each other from a world that doesn t want either of them, Elias and Ario will have to sacrifice everything they hold dear: freedom, safety, and even themselves.
