Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I was never ready to start this journey and although I started putting my thoughts down on paper a year after Annie s hemorrhage the experience remains painful to recall, however, I feel the need to confront these demons in an attempt to put them to bed, but for some reason I don t think I ever will. Before I started to write about our new life, I found talking about Annie since her Hemorrhage very emotional and physically upsetting. The feelings that were pent up inside me have been responsible for my lowest times and although Annie is still here the grief is as destructive as her loss. I hope these experiences will help others to come to terms with similar traumas and put some demons to rest for me. One of the most emotional reminders of that day was the time between calling the ambulance and its arrival. Whilst waiting for the ambulance to come I was on the floor by our backdoor. Annie had had two very big seizures and her lips were red with her blood. I was holding her on my lap, I recall preying, panicking, and crying. The feelings were of a huge helplessness and fear. I was telling Annie to hold on and that the ambulance was coming. The Paramedic, bless him was asking questions like has your wife been drinking, have you been arguing and did she fall and hit her head, all I wanted was for them to get her to hospital. I know I phoned my daughter Sarah but as for what I said I haven t a clue. Was I calm? I don t know. Following the chaos of admission to...
