Sermons on the Be Attitudes (Paperback)

By John Terry

CSS Publishing Company, 1998. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This captivating sermon collection explores the many blessings that we receive from God through our experiences of both sorrow and joy. Terry s brilliantly illustrated sermons will empower those in need with the confidence to conquer their adversities through their faith in Christ.He provides a rich, insightful exploration into each of the timeless Beatitudes. Terry points to other works on the Beatitudes and warns that those works may be a bit misleading because they imply that happiness is something outside of oneself, something that can be acquired (like a warm puppy).The Beatitudes are thought to be central among those words of Jesus that turned upside down the values of the common social order. Many view these words as a summary of Christ s ethical teachings, yet Terry emphasizes that they are much more than a set of commandments. These Beatitudes are not a to do list nor are they rules or moral laws, but are rather promises that will be fulfilled in God s time. They contrast our immediate reaction to present events with the promise of God s final actions. They are not the do-attitudes, Terry...
