The 18th Century, 1701-1800

By -

Salem Press Inc, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 262 x 214 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In The 18th Century , the new content constitutes more than two-thirds of the set. Commissioned especially for the new series and appearing here for the first time, essays cover the world s most important events and developments - from 1701 through 1800 - in the century that witnessed the world s transition to a modern industrial and scientific society. Great Events from History: The 18th Century begins with 105 core essays from Salem s acclaimed Chronology of European History and Great Events from History: North American Series . The set adds 238 new essays. That s 69 percent new coverage! Events covered include the obligatory geopolitical events of the era - from the War of the Spanish Succession through the American and French Revolutions, from the collapse of the South Sea Bubble to the rise of Napoleon. Also, however, the essays address key social and cultural developments in daily life, from the expansion of the Atlantic slave trade to the opening of Japan to foreign commerce and publications. Scientific achievements boomed in this post-Newtonian age. Hence, major advancements...
