Here is a short article from a gentleman that is very highly respected in the State of Minnesota, by those who know of him and of the work he has been doing here for the past two or three years, as landscape gardener for the Park system in St. Paul and Minneapolis. I sent him a card asking if he would give us a report, and this is the answer that he gives: LETTER FROM PROF. CLEVELAND. Wyman Elliott, Esq. , President Minnesota Horticultural Society: Dear Sir: --Your card was duly received, inviting me to make a short comprehensive report on deciduous trees--to be rendered at the meeting of the Soc, (21st and 24th inst.) Fully appreciating the honor you do me in thus inviting me, I regret my inability to comply, --first because I am so fully occupied with professional labor...
