HAIR ON FIRE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .You know when your hair is on fire: The questions that keep you up all night, the failures and mistakes that make of your life a fiery swampland that you never seem to get beyond, and that whatever you think, do, and create only further engulfs you in flames with no end in sight. Desperate for the light, you cannot see what is in front of you. The desperation of your wounds alert you that you must work your way through the healing that is in the wound. But what if you are one of those people who do not realize or refuse to see that your hair is on fire. You are born with your hair of fire. You fear to look for you are terrified that no one has ever or can ever ameliorate the suffering, grief, and agony that continuously throws fuel on the fire. This is so, even when you believe you are throwing water on the fire in the form of denial, spiritual shopping, or wrestling with an unappeasable soul whose voice will not leave you alone and whose relentlessness is, you think, part of the problem. You do not understand its language nor what it is trying to tell you because it is telling you that what you are doing is not working and that the truths you have lived are lies. You must listen to the voices for they originate in fire, and they are trying to tell you that your hair is on fire. You must acknowledge them and it in order to change your living. Change into the worth and value of what they and you are that you discover in your conversation with...
