Combining the very best elements of the short story and poetry genres, spanning from medieval times through the present day, these poetic stories are a balanced combination of original fantasy tales and social commentary. With themes ranging from the eerie to the humorous and topics such as child neglect, these fast-paced stories of life, death, and everything in-between are sure to take you on an unforgettable journey to other worlds. As entertaining as it is thought provoking, Tales of Fantasy and Reality is a riveting, insightful, and altogether arresting compilation.
